

Metallurgists

Accountabilities:

- Designs coil and plate products utilizing chemistry and thermo-mechanical rolling parameters to meet customer product specifications
- Provide assistance in establishing technical criteria for product design or redesign work.
- Identify opportunities to improve Essar Steel Algoma's profitability through the application of metallurgical principles and practices.
- Promote continuous improvement of quality and cost
- Provide a high level of technical support to operating and technical groups

Qualifications:

- Must have a minimum of a four year Degree in Materials or Metallurgical engineering from an accredited University with eligibility to obtain Professional Engineers of Ontario membership, after completion of all training requirements.
- Will have a working knowledge of modern PC based analytical software.
- Will have advanced personal computer skills (word processing, spreadsheets, etc.).
- Will have excellent interpersonal and communication skills.
- Will be self motivated and be able to work in a team atmosphere with minimum supervision.
- Will have a proven ability to solve problems.
- Will have good organizational and leadership skills.
- Previous experience working in an Engineering Department or related work situations will be an asset.

To be considered for this position, please submit your resume to algoma.careers@essar.com referencing the job title in the subject line. Only those applicants selected for an interview will be contacted.