

SENIOR ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH & SAFETY OFFICER

The successful applicant will be located in the Administration Building and report to the Manager- Occupational Health & Safety

ACCOUNTABILITIES

- Provide direction and expertise to ensure compliance with all safety, industrial hygiene and environmental legislation, at the federal/provincial levels.
- Provide direction and expertise to management to ensure worker health and safety
- Directs Environmental Health & Safety Officers in workplace monitoring programs, laboratory procedures and workplace investigations
- Liaise with General Managers, Superintendents, Supervisors, Employees, Contractors, and Health and Safety Committee members
- External contacts include, but not limited to, occupational/health/environmental labs, various applicable federal/provincial government agencies, as well as health and safety organizations and consultants.
- Attend accident investigations and provide counseling.
- Represent corporate concerns related to environment, health and safety issues at Joint Health and Safety Committee meetings.
- Prepare safety bulletins, safety meeting and information material.
- Directs monitoring of the work environment for potential chemical or physical hazards.
- Analyses and interprets data related to legislative compliance.
- Prepares reports/presentations pertaining to occupational health and safety.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Must have a 4 year degree in Science (such as chemistry, biology, physics, mathematics) or Engineering.
- Must be certified as a ROH (Registered Occupational Hygienist) or CIH (Certified Industrial Hygienist) OR must agree to obtain certification within an agreed schedule.
- Must have a valid driver's license.
- Requires demonstrated problem solving and decision making abilities and able to work with minimal direction.
- Requires effective interpersonal, communication, organizational, team and leadership skills.
- Must have working knowledge of PC based computer tools such as Outlook and MS Office suite.
- Knowledge and experience with the Occupational Health and Safety Act and the regulations for the Construction, Industrial and Mining industries.
- Knowledge and experience with Industrial Hygiene issues and regulations such as radiation, noise ergonomics and toxic substances.

To be considered for this position, please submit your resume to algoma.careers@essar.com referencing the job title in the subject line. Only those applicants selected for an interview will be contacted.